

Group Covenant

I, as a member of an FCCI Business Leadership Group, do agree:

- To open my heart, let God reveal Himself to me, and share what I am learning with the others.
- To allow God to be the center of my business.
- To grow in my relationship with God and the members of this group by challenging each other, seeking Truth, sharing experiences, and praying for each other.
- To generously support the ministry and work of FCCI.

GROUP OBJECTIVES

- To grow as a group, encouraging each other as “iron sharpens iron” and learn to share our hearts with each other so we can build a healthy, Christ-centered community.
- To address any area of our lives that may hinder our spiritual growth and/or relationships with our family, employees, or customers.
- To learn to operate the business God has entrusted with excellence, according to his word.

EXPECTATIONS & REQUIREMENTS

1. PARTICIPATION

Agree to engage in the learning process of the group by sharing what God says about an issue or question. Be open to listen to others and not try to “fix” things for them or place any judgment on them. Be committed to challenging each other in this area of sharing at a deeper level.

2. CONFIDENTIALITY

Agree to respect each other’s desire to privacy and safety by limiting discussion of what is revealed in our meetings. The only exception would be if the person sharing gives explicit permission to discuss his/her information with other persons. There is freedom to discuss outside the group any relevant issues that relates to your OWN growth, but confidentiality of other group members is absolutely imperative.

3. ATTENDANCE

Agree to make this group a top priority and be committed to attending each meeting unless sick, experiencing a business emergency or have unexpected travel. Because of the nature of the group, it is very important not to miss. Likewise, make every effort to arrive in time for the meeting start.

I accept this FCCI Group Covenant and commit myself to it wholeheartedly.
