

SPONSOR AN EVENT

INVITATION FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Thank you for considering sponsorship of an upcoming RDU FCCI event! FCCI exists to equip and encourage Christian business leaders to lead their companies for Christ in order to advance the Great Commission through the marketplace. Something amazing happens when we gather in one place for one purpose!

There are two Sponsorship Packages to choose from. These provide opportunities for recognition, networking and engagement with our community of Christian business leaders in RDU.

Thank you for considering, and we look forward to partnering with you to help transform RDU through Christ.

In Faith,

Ryan Dickinson
FCCI Executive Director
