

SAN DIEGO

SPONSOR AN EVENT

INVITATION FROM THE DIRECTOR

FCCI is looking to partner with local Christian businesses to sponsor a “Faith at Work – Is it Legal?” event as we seek to encourage and equip Christian business leaders to impact the community for Christ via the marketplace.

This event features religious liberties champion Brad Dacus and is specifically designed to address the intersection of faith and the workplace, exploring the legal aspects and implications for Christian business leaders in the San Diego area.

As a valued sponsor, your support will not only enable us to deliver a high-impact event but also provide you with valuable exposure and networking opportunities within our community.
